READING: "TRADITIONS"

What means traditions?

A part of culture that is passed from person to person or generation to generation, possibly differing in detail from family to family, such as the way to celebrate holidays. For example Christmas.

Why traditions are so important?

Traditions are important because they connect us to our roots and allow us a moment to reflect with our families. Many of our childhood memories are during a tradition, raising flyers, during birthday games, among others.

TRADITIONS AROUND THE WORLD: "HANUKKAH"

Hanukkah is the Jewish Festival of Lights. It lasts for eight days. It is usually celebrated in November or December.

Candles

People light candles at Hanukkah. They light one candle every evening. The special Hanukkah candle holder is called a Hanukkah menorah. It has nine candles.

Games

Some families play a traditional game called 'dreidel'. The dreidel has four sides and there is a different Hebrew letter on each side. Spin the dreidel and see which letter you get!

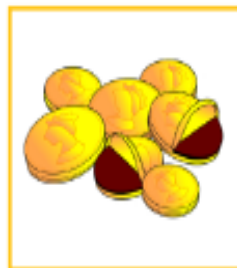

Food

People make special pancakes at this time of year. The pancakes are made with potatoes, onions, eggs, flour and oil. People also eat delicious jam doughnuts.

Presents

Families and friends give each other presents and money at Hanukkah. Children sometimes get chocolate coins. People also give cards that often have pictures of a menorah or a dreidel.

Happy Hanukkah!
