I.

Adverbs of frequency

I think that's most of them. You could include frequently, with usually. We use not very often too.

Very good, you're right. These are the most common adverbs, although there are more.

They always hang out together.

The Northern Lights are usually green.

You normally see them best in September or March.

It's often cloudy.

What do you notice about the position of the adverbs?

They are usually before the main verb, or between the auxiliary and the main verb. But they come after the verb to be.
